MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT: [] - Attendance at the FBI
National Police Academy

1. This memorandum submits a recommendation which is contained in paragraph 4.

2. Pursuant to your instruction, the matter of [] attendance at the FBI National Police Academy was discussed with Mr. Cregar, FBI Liaison Representative. Mr. Cregar advised that [] attendance had been arranged and suggested that a letter under the signature of the Deputy Director for Support be sent to the FBI nominating [] for this training. He further suggested that [] be given some training in fingerprints and photography prior to his attendance at the Academy.

3. Attached is a proposed letter to the FBI for your signature. This letter and the biographic data which is attached have been reviewed by Mr. Cregar who agrees that this will suffice for the FBI's needs. We are scheduling [] for training in photography and fingerprints as well as training in the Intelligence Review Course and other courses designed to bring him up-to-date on the intelligence process.

4. It is recommended that you sign the attached letter to the FBI and return it to the Office of Security where it will be passed to the FBI through Mr. Cregar.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller

SUBJECT : FBI National Police Academy

1. I refer to our meeting with Mr. Papich on 10 August 1965 concerning the possibility of entering an Agency staff employee in the next course of the FBI National Police Academy in response to the Director's interest in promoting training relationships and familiarization with training procedures of other Government organizations.

2. Mr. Papich advised me that the next course of the National Police Academy will begin on Monday, 16 August, which would preclude the Agency's entering a candidate since all arrangements for the course have already been completed. The next course will begin on 7 March 1966. In accordance with our agreement, the Office of Security has selected [redacted] a grade GS-12 who has had considerable liaison experience [redacted] as the candidate to attend this course. Arrangements are being made with Mr. Papich to enter [redacted] in this course, and a biographic profile on [redacted] will be furnished to Mr. Papich, who will then take the necessary action within the FBI to effect this arrangement.
